THE JOURNAL OF THE
CENTRAL MIDDLESEX

*Beneath these greentrees rising to the skies
The planter of them Isaac Greentree lies.
The day shall come when these greentrees shall fall
And Isaac Greentree rise above them all.*

The quotation on the front cover is taken from a wooden headboard in the churchyard of St. Mary's Church, Harrow-on-the-Hill, Middlesex.

MONUMENTAL INSCRIPTIONS.
ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST, WEMBLEY.

Originally Wembley in Middlesex was part of the ancient Parish of Harrow until 1846 when it became a separate Parish. The Churchyard immediately around the Church was consecrated at that time but the area to the east was designated as the Council Burial ground. This was later consecrated in 1883.

St. John's Parish registers from 1846 to 1920 are deposited at the Greater London Record Office. However, a comprehensive index of names up to about 1914 is held by Mrs. D.E.Jones, 95 Oakington Avenue, Wembley Park, Middlesex, HA9 8HY. Any requests for details must be accompanied by a SAE.

The monumental inscriptions were recorded by members of Central Middlesex F.H.S. during the summer of 1982 and grateful thanks are extended to the Rev. Brian Moore for allowing us to carry out this project.

Copies of the full inscriptions have been deposited, and are available for reference at:-

The Society of Genealogists
Greater London Record Office
Grange Museum, Wexden
Civic Centre Library, Harrow

A photo-copy of the text of a particular tombstone or monument will be supplied on receipt of a S.A.E. with a fee of 15p per entry required (overseas enquirers should send 3 IRCs). Requests should be sent to:-
The Hon. Secretary, whose name and address can be found in current issues of our journal "Greentrees" and in the FFHS News & Digest.

Additional copies of this index are available, price 75p, plus 25p postage and packing.
