ST GREGORY BY ST PAUL

St Gregory by St Paul

St Gregory by St Paul was an ancient parish in the City of London and formed part of Castle Baynard Ward. Each ward has an elected alderman and supporting councilmen in the City of London Corporation which has administered the City since before the Norman Conquest and is still doing so today.

This parish is first mentioned in the records in 1010. The church stood just to the south west of St Paul's Cathedral and was destroyed in the Great Fire. The parish was then joined with St Mary Magdalen Old Fish Street in 1670, further merging with St Martin Ludgate in 1890. Records of St Gregory by St Paul, including registers of baptisms (1559-1882), marriages (1559-1867) and burials (1559-1853) are at London Metropolitan Archives, Ref: P69/GRE.
