ST ANDREW HUBBARD

St Andrew Hubbard, Eastcheap

St Andrew Hubbard was an ancient parish in the City of London and formed part of Billingsgate Ward. Each ward has an elected alderman and supporting councilmen in the City of London Corporation which has administered the City since before the Norman Conquest and is still doing so today.

This church was first mentioned in records in 1202. It was burnt down by the Great Fire in 1666 and not rebuilt. The parish was united with at St Mary at Hill in 1670. Records of St Andrew Hubbard including registers of baptisms (1706-1790), marriages (1815-1837) and burials (1706-1790 and 1813-1846) are at The London Archives, Ref: P69/AND3.
