ST MARY COLECHURCH

St Mary Colechurch, Poultry

St Mary Colechurch was an ancient parish in the City of London and formed part of Cheap Ward. Each ward has an elected alderman and supporting councilmen in the City of London Corporation which has administered the City since before the Norman Conquest and is still doing so today.

Founded in medieval days, this church was destroyed during the Great Fire and not rebuilt. The parish the joined those of St Martin Pomeroy and St Olave Jewry in 1670. These then further merged with St Mildred Poultry in 1871 and St Margaret Lothbury in 1886. Records of St Mary Colechurch including registers of baptisms (1558-1812), marriages (1558-1666) and burials (1558-1812) are at The London Archives, Ref: P69/MRY8.
