ST MILDRED POULTRY

St Mildred, Poultry

St Mildred Poultry was an ancient parish in the City of London and formed part of Cheap Ward. Each ward has an elected alderman and supporting councilmen in the City of London Corporation which has administered the City since before the Norman Conquest and is still doing so today.

St Mildred, Poultry is first mentioned in records in 1175. The church was destroyed during the Great Fire but was rebuilt by Wren in the 1670s. The parish was merged with St Margaret Lothbury, together with St Martin Pomeroy, St Bartholomew by the Exchange, St Mary Colechurch, St Olave Jewry and St Christopher le Stocks following the Union of City Benefices Act and the church demolished in 1872. Records of St Mildred Poultry including registers of baptisms (1538-1870), marriages (1538-1871) and burials (1538-1852) are at The London Archives, Ref: P69/MIL2.
