ST PANCRAS SOPER LANE

St Pancras Soper Lane

St Pancras, Soper Lane, was an ancient parish in the City of London and formed part of Cordwainer Ward. Each ward has an elected alderman and supporting councilmen in the City of London Corporation which has administered the City since before the Norman Conquest and is still doing so today.

This church is first mentioned in 1257, when it was attached to the monastery of Christchurch, Canterbury. It burnt down in the Great Fire and the parish was then united with that of St Mary le Bow, together with All Hallows Honey Lane, whose church was also destroyed in the fire. Records of St Pancras, Soper Lane, including registers of baptisms (1538-1889), marriages (1538-1836) and burials (1538-1849) are at The London Archives, Ref: P69/PAN.
